You have been included on the jury roll for the district of Lismore. The roll runs for one year, from Oct-2014 to Oct-2015.

During that time, you may be called (summoned) to serve on a jury.

You do not need to take any action now, this is not a summons. You can find answers to common questions at juror.nsw.gov.au

If you have holidays, exams or other commitments
You can let us know about dates that would make it difficult for you to serve, by going online:

juror.nsw.gov.au

You can nominate up to two periods, of up to a total of 2 weeks each.

If you are unable to serve
Jury service is a rewarding responsibility. It is a fundamental part of our justice system.

Employers are obliged to release staff to attend jury service. Jurors can receive payment for their service.

However, if jury service will cause undue hardship, if you are unfit to serve, or for people in certain jobs, you can request to be removed from the jury roll. In addition, certain people are not eligible to serve on a jury under the Jury Act (NSW) 1977.

To request to be removed from the jury roll visit juror.nsw.gov.au (this is the fastest method), or complete the attached form and return it within 14 days.

If you have an age related issue
If you have an age related issue which may affect your ability to serve then visit juror.nsw.gov.au or call us on 1300 722 574.
If your personal details have changed

If your name and address have changed, let us know by filling in and returning the attached form or, for faster processing and immediate confirmation, visit juror.nsw.gov.au.

You have been included on a jury roll for an urgent summons

You have been included on the jury roll for the district of Lismore. The roll runs for one year, from Oct-2014 to Oct-2015.

During that time, you may be called (summoned) to serve on a jury.

What you need to do

You do not need to take any action now, this is not a summons. You can find answers to common questions at juror.nsw.gov.au

If you have holidays, exams or other commitments

You can let us know about dates that would make it difficult for you to serve, by going online:

juror.nsw.gov.au

You can nominate up to two periods, of up to a total of 2 weeks each.

If you are unable to serve

Jury service is a rewarding responsibility. It is a fundamental part of our justice system.

Employers are obliged to release staff to attend jury service. Jurors can receive payment for their service.

However, if jury service will cause undue hardship, if you are unfit to serve, or for people in certain jobs, you can request to be removed from the jury roll. In addition, certain people are not eligible to serve on a jury under the Jury Act (NSW) 1977.

To request to be removed from the jury roll visit juror.nsw.gov.au (this is the fastest method), or complete the attached form and return it within 14 days.

If you have an age related issue

If you have an age related issue which may affect your ability to serve then visit juror.nsw.gov.au or call us on 1300 722 574.
If your personal details have changed

If your name and address have changed, let us know by filling in and returning the attached form or, for faster processing and immediate confirmation, visit juror.nsw.gov.au.
